Event Coordinator's Report

2019 Bluebirds Annual Progressive Dinner

by Dennis Bible

We met at the Blairsville Marathon at 2:30 PM for a group ride to the Lakeside Village Clubhouse where we met up with more Chapter members already setting things up for our 1st stop. There were delicious salads and appetizers in abundance that threatened to stuff us full before getting to the main course at Nick & Sandy Georges. (Continued Pg 3)

But get there we did! We took a scenic ride on the back roads to get to our 2nd stop. Nick and Sandy had roast pork & gravy, corn-on-the-cob, grape & artichoke vegetable dish, a Greek/tomato salad, garlic bread and plenty of good wine! The aroma from the kitchen spiced our appetites all over again. Finishing the main course we rode to Dick & Diane Schmidt's for our 3rd stop and some very decadent desserts, ranging from Carrot cake, Chocolate cake, Peanut butter Pie, Cheese cake, Brownies, Cookies and more. There were 23 members and several guests in attendance. I counted 10 bikes/trikes and 4 or five "4 wheelers". Thanks to all who pitched in to make this event a success, including Fred & Carol Henige, Nick & Sandy George, the Schmidt family, Barb Schleicher and all who brought great dish's.
